Author's Notes:
Just a smol drabble. I've been pretty poorly over the last couple of years but I'm trying to overcome stuff and ease myself back into writing.

James was contemplating grand schemes as he dipped his Oreo into his glass of milk.

"Hey James?" said Lars. "What ya thinking about buddy?"

"Did you know..." James began, "that Oreo is a palindrome?"

"Uh?"

"You know...a word that's the same backwards and forwards".

"Um, yeah, I know what it means but Oreo isn't one".

"Isn't it?" James frowned. "Hang on, lemme test it. Oreo. Oero..."

Lars beamed at James and flung his arms around him.

"Awww, thanks dude! You're my hero too!"

"What the f...oh boy! If you say so," said James, rolling his eyes and hugging Lars back.
